

HIGHLIGHTS OF 1 CORINTHIANS / Corinthians 1:18

The Meaning of the Cross
(1:18–2:16)

Be considerate of one another because of what Christ has done for us. There is no place for pride or a know-it-all attitude. We are to have the mind of Christ.

The Story of the Last Supper
(11:23-29)

The Last Supper is a time of reflection on Christ's final words to his disciples before he died on the cross; believers must celebrate this in an orderly and correct manner.

The Poem of Love
(13:1-13)

Love is to guide all that believers do. Christians have different gifts, abilities, likes, dislikes—but they are called, without exception, to love.

The Christian's Destiny
(15:42-58)

Christ, who died for sins, promised that just as he had come back to life after death, so believers' perishable bodies will be exchanged for heavenly bodies. They will live and reign with Christ.
