

MARRIAGE WITH A MISSION / Acts 18:19-21

One of the more interesting couples in the New Testament is Priscilla and Aquila. Colleagues of the apostle Paul, this husband-and-wife team left a legacy of tireless labor for the work of Christ. Always willing to serve wherever needed, they are a wonderful role model for modern-day couples who want to use their marriages to make an eternal difference in this world.

Reference	Location	Date	Event
Acts 18:2	Rome	A.D. 49	Ordered to leave Rome (with all the other Jews) by Claudius
Acts 18:2-3	Corinth	A.D. 50–51	Made tents and ministered with the apostle Paul
Acts 18:18-19	Ephesus	A.D. 52	Left in Ephesus by Paul, where, among other things, they helped Apollos sharpen his message
1 Corinthians 16:19	Ephesus	A.D. 55–56	Hosted a church in their home in Ephesus and sent greetings via Paul to Christian friends in Corinth
Romans 16:3-5	Rome	A.D. 56–57	Ministered back in Rome and hosted a house church
2 Timothy 4:19	Ephesus	A.D. 67	In Ephesus once again, probably assisted young Timothy as he pastored there