

VARIETY IN WORSHIP / Deuteronomy 23

Israel's worship used all of the senses. They reinforced the meaning of the ceremony.

Every sense can be used to worship God.

- | | |
|-------------------|---|
| Sight | The beauty and symbolism of the Tabernacle; every color and hue had a meaning |
| Hearing | The use of music; there were instructions for the use of a variety of instruments, and the Bible records many songs |
| Touch | The head of the animal to be sacrificed was touched, symbolizing the fact that it was taking their place |
| Smell | The sacrifices were burned, emitting a familiar aroma |
| Taste | The festivals were celebrations and memorials—much of the food was symbolic |
