

PEACE WITH ALL PEOPLE? / Hebrews 12:14

We cannot get around it: Believers—as the salt and light of the world—must pursue peaceful relationships. The verbs, such as “pursue” and “seek,” show us that it may not necessarily be easy to do, but God calls us to do it.

| Psalm 34:14          | Turn away from evil and do good. Work hard at living in peace with others.                                                                                                                                     |
| Matthew 5:9          | God blesses those who work for peace, for they will be called the children of God.                                                                                                                             |
| Mark 9:50            | Salt is good for seasoning. But if it loses its flavor, how do you make it salty again? You must have the qualities of salt among yourselves and live in peace with each other.                                |
| Romans 12:18         | Do your part to live in peace with everyone, as much as possible.                                                                                                                                              |
| Romans 14:19         | So then, let us aim for harmony in the church and try to build each other up.                                                                                                                                  |
| 2 Corinthians 13:11  | Dear brothers and sisters, I close my letter with these last words: Rejoice. Change your ways. Encourage each other. Live in harmony and peace. Then the God of love and peace will be with you.               |
| 1 Thessalonians 5:13 | Think highly of them and give them your wholehearted love because of their work. And remember to live peaceably with each other.                                                                               |
| 2 Timothy 2:22       | Run from anything that stimulates youthful lust. Follow anything that makes you want to do right. Pursue faith and love and peace, and enjoy the companionship of those who call on the Lord with pure hearts. |
| Hebrews 12:14        | Try to live in peace with everyone, and seek to live a clean and holy life, for those who are not holy will not see the Lord.                                                                                  |
| 1 Peter 3:11         | Turn away from evil and do good. Work hard at living in peace with others.                                                                                                                                     |
