

TODAY'S IDOLATRY / Isaiah 44

Isaiah tells us, “Who but a fool would make his own god—an idol that cannot help him one bit!” We think of idols as statues of wood or stone, but in reality an idol is anything natural that is given sacred value and power. If your answer to any of the following questions is anything or anyone other than God, you may need to check out who or what you are worshiping.

- Who created me?
- Whom do I ultimately trust?
- Whom do I look to for ultimate truth?
- Whom do I look to for security and happiness?
- Who is in charge of my future?
